Dear Sophomore Teachers, Campus and Youth Ministers,

The Serra Club of St. Louis invites you to encourage your sophomores to participate in our annual Vocation Essay Contest and hopefully win one of the cash prizes!

Please have the sophomores reflect and respond to the topic:

During this strange time of Pandemic, how has God communicated His love to you?

Given this unprecedented time, it is especially important for young people to know and trust God. Even in difficult circumstances they can begin to see patterns and sense where God may be leading them. We would like to help foster their desire to listen to God's hopeful call for their lives which will help them consider if they may have a vocation to the Priesthood or Religious Life.

Essays must be between 150-300 words typed. They may be submitted via email or USPS. Students will need to include their name, school, and parish, as well as the teacher's/youth minister's name and email. Essays should be received by November 30th.

Please email essays to serrastlvoc@gmail.com or send to 1st place will receive $1,000. 2nd place will receive $500. 3rd place will receive $250. In addition, the teacher or youth minister of each first place winner will also receive $250 – you and your student may both win! A Serra Club appointed committee will select the winners, and you will be notified in January.

Thank you for all your efforts in promoting the Vocation Essay Contest.

Prayerfully,

Adina Tracy
